

Local News

: Personals :

Miss Julia McAllister and Miss Sallie Sue Ramey spent part of last week with relatives in Hodges.

Walter McCord is spending a few days this week in Greenville with his brother, A. M. McCord.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Nickles went over to Hodges Sunday and were the guests of relatives for the day.

Miss Anna Charles spent the weekend in Abbeville with her friend, Mrs. J. C. King.

Leonard Whitlock went over to Greenwood Saturday and spent until Sunday afternoon with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Mack Henry arrived in Abbeville yesterday for a visit to the home folks. This is their first visit in sometime and friends are glad to see them.

Dr. and Mrs. N. E. Pressly left yesterday for a visit to Clinton, where they will be the guests of their son, Rev. H. E. Pressly.

Mrs. C. Wannamaker came up from Orangeburg Tuesday and will spend sometime in Abbeville the guest of Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Neuffer.

Mr. J. F. Edmunds and son Jack, are in Chester this week visiting Mrs. D. E. Estes.

Mrs. Henry H. DuPre and her young son, Henry Hill, Jr., left Saturday for Castile, where they will visit relatives till the latter part of the week.

Henry H. DuPre left Sunday for Baltimore, where he goes on business.

Ernest Pennal is off from Haskell's store for a weeks rest. He is spending the time in Spartanburg, where he has many friends.

Miss Margaret Bradley, James Cox and Sanford Howie spent Friday night in Troy, attending the party given by their friend, Miss Rebecca Wardlaw.

Miss Mary Roche is taking her vacation from Haddon-Wilson Co., and went up to Greenville the latter part of the week and spent several days very pleasantly with friends.

Miss Floride Perry left Friday night for Charleston, where she will visit friends for sometime.

Mrs. J. M. Kirby, who was called to Abbeville on account of the serious accident of her brother, Mr. A. B. Hamlin, in McCormick, returned home to Atlanta Monday. Mr. Hamlin is slowly improving.

Willie McDonald came over from Atlanta Saturday and spent Sunday with Mrs. McDonald and little daughter, Luna, who are here on an extended visit to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hill left last Thursday morning for the mountains of North Carolina, where they will spend sometime as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Smith at their summer home near Hendersonville. They made the trip in their Ford, stopping over in Greenville for a days visit.

Miss Margaret Cox has been in Greenwood recently as the guest of Mrs. W. A. Muller and has been entertained delightfully by friends in that city.

Dr. W. D. Simpson has recently returned from a trip to New York where he went on professional business.

Mrs. W. D. Wilson and Miss Mary Lawson Link motored over to the city of Greenwood Sunday and spent the time with friends. Miss Catherine Link returned home with them, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. C. E. Klugh.

Miss Edna Cox has been spending the past week with friends in Blackville. From there Miss Cox goes to New Orleans, where she will visit for two weeks with her cousin, Mrs. Arthur Ellis.

Mrs. D. A. Rogers and little Annie Hemphill Rogers, went up to Monroe Saturday and spent a day or two with Mr. Rogers' father, who is recovering from a recent operation.

Miss Georgia Wardlaw is in the city on a visit to her friend, Miss Ruth McLane. Miss Georgia is attending Erskine and is taking a high stand among the co-eds.

Mrs. R. H. Cochran spent from Saturday until Monday with her daughter, Mrs. W. J. McKee, near Due West.

Mrs. Fied Stubbs and children, Gilmer and Lucile, of Fitzgerald, Ga. are here on a visit to Dr. and Mrs. J. Irwin Gilmer and other relatives.

Ellis Mabry of Greenwood, spent last week here with relatives and friends.

Mrs. A. W. Jones and Roy McDavid of Columbia, were here last week visiting Mrs. B. K. Beacham and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Dewey and Miss Elizabeth McCord spent Sunday in Atlanta with Mrs. Dewey's brother, Clyde Murchison, who is in training at Ft. McPherson.

Miss Helen Eakin and her cousin, Miss Burnett, are in the city spending a while with Miss Mattie Eakin.

Miss Sadie Magill spent the past week with her cousin, Mrs. C. L. Moseley of Ninety Six. Before her return she will spend several days with relatives in Due West.

Miss Allent Mabry, who spent last week with her numerous relatives here went to Clinton Sunday, where she will stay with her sister, Mrs. S. J. Kilgore until Wednesday. She will return to the Pryor hospital, where she is in training on Wednesday.

Mrs. John White and little daughter, Sara, will return home Thursday from a delightful visit to relatives in Rocky Mount, N. C.

Mrs. Otis McMillan returned to her home in Anderson Tuesday after a weeks stay with her homefolks. Mrs. George Penney went home with her and will spend several days.

Miss Mary Hill and Miss Ruth Calvert will go up to Lowndesville Thursday and be the guests of their college friend, Miss Cornelia Tennant.

Miss Emma Lipscomb of Ninety-six, is in Abbeville this week the attractive guest of Miss Rebecca Jones.

Mr. G. W. Shelor came down from Seneca and spent Sunday in Abbeville with friends.

Mrs. Addie Carter of Greenville, is in the city on an extende visit to her sister, Mrs. J. L. Hill, near Abbeville.

Mr. Frank Stokes of Greenville, spent the week-end in the city with friends.

Miss Sara Haskell went over to Greenwood Thursday, where she joined a party of friends and went to Chattanooga, Tenn. They will spend two weeks in camp.

Mr. L. W. Dick spent Monday and a part of Tuesday in Abbeville with Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Smith, Jr. Mr. Dick has many warm friends in Abbeville who are always glad to see him.

Frank Sherard returned to Calhoun Falls Tuesday, having been at his home near Abbeville for several days, having been on the sick list.

Mr. H. G. Smith has returned from Tate Springs, where he has had a delightful stay of several weeks.

A PRETTY ROOK PARTY.

Miss Pauline Wosmansky entertained twenty of her friends Tuesday evening from 8 till 11 o'clock in honor of her cousin, Miss Kathleen Simmons of Athens, Ga., who will be her attractive guest for sometime.

There were five tables of players and progressive rook was played until Misses Frances Wosmansky and Florence Sprouse served dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and mints. A delightful time was enjoyed by the following: Misses Kathleen Simmons, Margaret Swetenberg, Helen Eakin, Florence Neuffer, Grace Link, Mary Nickles, Katherine Faulkner, Lydia Owen, Thelma Seal, Minnie Ruth Cox, Teofilo Bradley, Louis Wilson, Lewis Seal, David Robert, Leroy Clark, John Kennedy, David Kennedy, John Little, John Albert Dickson.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY.

Miss Lillian Swetenberg complimented her Sunday School class of little boys last Friday afternoon with a party. Each boy was allowed to bring his girl along and after the arrival of the youngsters games were played until refreshments of ice cream and cakes brought a close to them. A very pleasant time was spent.

CELEBRATING THE EIGHTH.

Miss Thelma Bauknight spent her eighth birthday very happily Monday afternoon by inviting her little friends to her house to help celebrate the day. After the usual amusing games were played the good things to eat were brought out and served the children on the piazza and lawn. Thelma received many useful and pretty presents along with the best wishes for many happy birthdays just like this one.

CELEBRATING THE DAY.

Mrs. J. Foster Barnwell gave a delightful party last Friday afternoon to her pretty young daughter on the occasion of her eighth birthday. Many of the little girls in town were invited and spent the time pleasantly in playing games, listening to the Victrola and in enjoying the ice cream and cake served. Each little guest was given a dainty little silver basket filled with candy as a souvenir of the party.

DEATH OF A SOLDIER.

Greenwood, July 20.—Claude Llewellyn Shannon, a member of the Greenville Coast Artillery company, died at the Greenwood hospital Thursday morning at 4:30 o'clock following an operation for appendicitis. He had been ill only one week. Mr. Shannon was 23 years of age and a native of Donalds, being the son of Mr. L. A. Shannon. The body was taken to Donalds for interment.

AT SULLIVAN'S ISLAND.

Mr. R. Kirkwood has spent a week down on Sullivan's Island enjoying a fine rest and the cool breezes and all the pleasure that place offers. Mrs. Kirkwood, accompanied by her friend, Miss Lily Mann, who has been her guest for sometime will go to Sullivan's Island upon Mr. Kirkwood's return and spend a week.

A YOUNG CHAUFFER.

Henry, the nine year old son of Dr. and Mrs. W. D. Simpson, is an expert chauffeur, recently demonstrating this fact by driving a three-speed gear shift from Monroe to Charlotte, N. C., a distance of about sixty miles. Henry has been able to handle his fathers Ford since he was six years of age.

A PRETTY CENTRAL GIRL.

Miss Maude Hawthorne is substituting as "hello" girl in the telephone office this summer, while the girls are taking their vacations. Miss Essie Lee McCord has just returned from her vacation last week and Miss Margaret McCord is taking hers this week. Miss Maude is a bright ambitious young lady and is making a good record at Winthrop college, where she is a student.

MT. CARMEL.

Mt. Carmel, July 23.—The drouth of the past few weeks was broken last Wednesday by a very heavy rain, and since then we have had nice rains, which are very beneficial to the crops.

Mrs. Wilbur Blackwell and her handsome little son of Columbia, S. C., spent the past week in Mt. Carmel with Mesdames P. K. Black and T. B. Frazier.

Mrs. Bud Self of Greenwood, is visiting Mrs. Lura Cade of Lisbon, Ga.

Mrs. Minnie Watson, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Ferguson, at Sally, S. C., returned home this week on account of the illness of Mr. Ollie Watson. She came by Anderson to see Mr. Watson.

Messrs Roy Wells and Gerard Tarrant returned home Sunday from Columbia, where they have been working.

Mr. Furman Grant is driving a pretty new Ford car.

Mr. Ollie Watson became suddenly, very ill last Monday and Dr. Jack Pressly of Abbeville, was summoned. On arrival he found Mr. Watson suffering with appendicitis, and an immediate operation was necessary. Messrs. Bradley Morrah and Lawrence Hester and Dr. Pressly carried him to the Anderson hospital Monday night. He was successfully operated on at 10 o'clock and stood the operation fine. It will be good news to his many friends to know that is improving nicely.

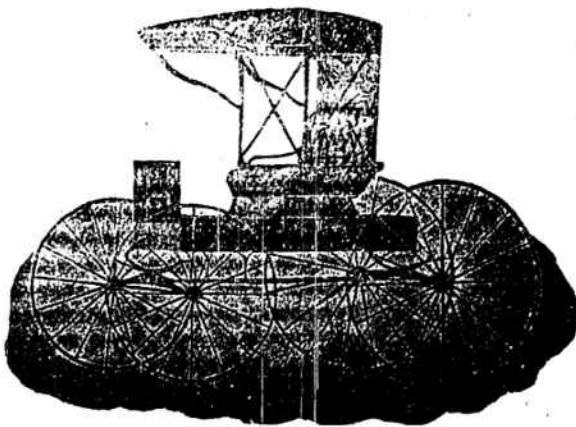

Miss Mary McAllister left last Saturday to teach a summer school at Trevelers Rest, S. C.

Messrs McCarter and Gilliam were in Mt. Carmel Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ollie Watson spent the week-end in Anderson with Mr. Watson.

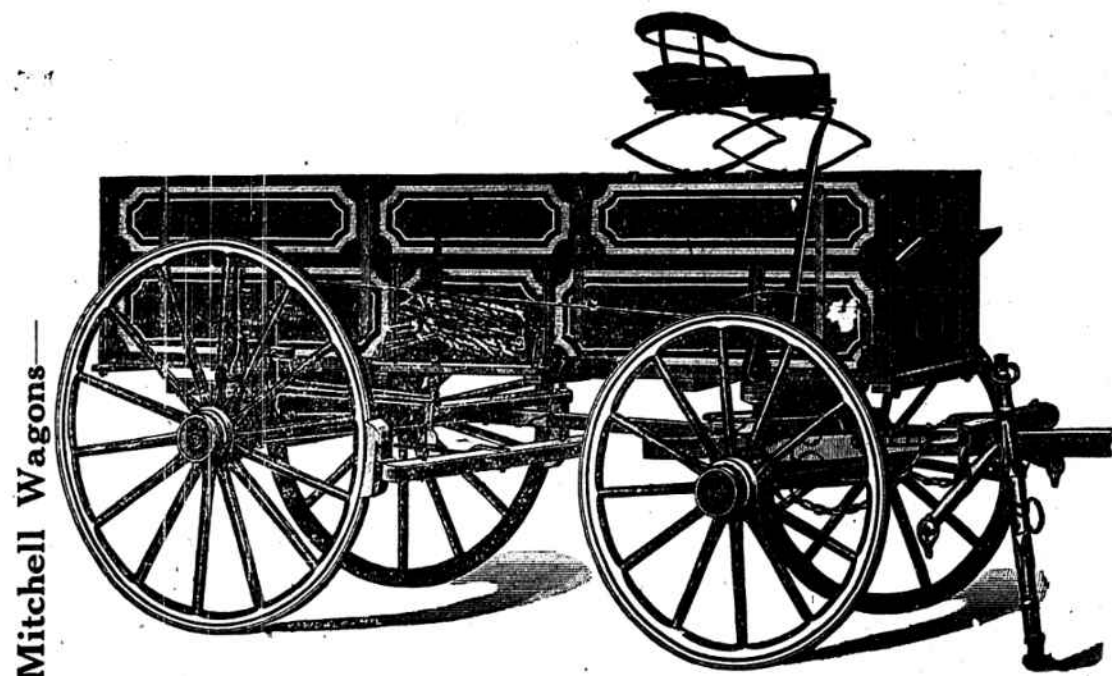

Mrs. T. E. Howard and children, of Anderson, are visiting Mrs. Lura Cade of Lisbon, Ga.

Miss Mary Paschal, who has been spending the past six weeks with her aunts, Mrs. Alma Hayes and Mrs. J. E. Arant, returned home last Monday. She was accompanied by her

Buggies Wagons Harness

Price Right, Terms Right, Will treat you Right
Our guarantee means something

Mitchell Wagons

The Stark Vehicle Co.

Next to Stark's Stable.

ABBEVILLE, S. C.

Buy it at druggists and general stores or postpaid from the manufacturer's.

seain the pumment streats which they has bilt wiff sand an claign, i sais that sumbody kneads they ejjication but i thinks it is the mare of abvul, and i propoases ter git ther kuntrie bois to git up a superskripshun ter teech dr. gambul, yeoar Mare how ter bild sand and claign streats soa thet he wont hev ter skraip main streat ter let ther peapul out ter greanvil nex time we has a leckshun on bons.

pleas print my list in yore paiper as folars
we the ignerrunt kuntrie bois of neer watts s c an way stashuns hearbie superskripshuns ourselfs ter paigh ther whoal sum jined ter our naims ter teech ther Mare of abvul that he shoold lurn sumthin hisself befoar bothering bout us. hed it with dote smith, one cent.
yourn,
dote.

p s yoo may think thet the mount i superskripshuns is too lital but i do not wish ter give ther Mare moar then he is aibul ter talk in at wun dote.

Dote.

BELLEVUE.

Bellevue, July 21.—Misses Mary Milford of Abbeville, and Malvina Kennedy of Eden Hall, are guests of Miss Bettie Morrah.

Mr. Henry Schroeder returned to Chareston Wednesday after a few days spent in Bellevue.

Prof. Mark Bradley and family returned to Clemson, after a pleasant stay with Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Morrah.

Mr. Tom Ellerbee, of Greenwood, has been the guest for the past week of Mr. Joe Alston.

Misses Rebecca and Elizabeth Wardlaw entertained Friday night in honor of the visiting young ladies.

Miss Ellen Morrah was hostess at a dining on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. J. C. Kennedy and Mrs. Lizzie Bradley.

The young people attended a picnic Saturday at Badwell.

Mr. David Robinson of Troy, is the guest of Mr. David Wardlaw.

Miss Bettie Morrah was hostess at a reception on Tuesday night in honor of Misses Milford and Kennedy.

Guests from Columbia, Greenwood, Abbeville, Troy, McCormick, Willington and Sandover were preselent. Cake and cream were served.

Miss Jennings, of Columbia, spent Tuesday night in Bellevue.

Miss Malvina Parker was hostess at a dining on Monday.

Mrs. Wardlaw entertained Wednesday in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Hawes of Elberton.

Dr. A. S. Hawes and family, and Mrs. Moore of Elberton, were recently guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guilford Cade.

Miss Janie Lee Morrah entertained Tuesday night at a reception in honor of her birthday.

Mrs. J. L. Kennedy entertained the young people on Wednesday.

LOWNDESVILLE.

Lowndesville, July 23.—Miss Christine Kay has returned from Atlanta, after a visit of several weeks.

Capt. Chas. L. Baker, of New York, spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Baker.

Major and Mrs. F. W. R. Nance of Abbeville, visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. J. H. Lawrence will leave Tuesday for Atlanta to visit relatives Miss Margaret Smith of Spartanburg, and Miss Lou Ellen Ligon of Anderson, are visiting Mrs. E. W. Harper.

Miss Cornelia Tennant expects to have Miss Mabel Reid, of Iva, and Misses Ruth Calvert and Mary Hill, of Abbeville, as house guests this week. She will entertain in their honor Thursday evening.

Dr. A. H. Claflin, of Pittsburg, Pa., will lecture in the Baptist church Monday, July 30, at 8:30 P. M., on War-Time Prohibition, representing the Anti-Saloon League.

A contract to complete our school auditorium has been given, Mr. C. M. Guest of Anderson, and his force is at work. The job will be finished before school opens.

Mrs. E. W. Harper and Mrs. J. H. Lawrence entertained the young people last Friday evening at the home of the former. A most delightful evening was spent.

Mr. Wendell Latimer has returned from Columbia, where he attended summer school.

John Kinard came up from Newberry last week and spent simetime with his cousin, Frank Gary. Mr. Kinard enjoyed a dance at the hall one night and many other attentions shown him by the young people, all of whom say he is "just too cute for anything."